

DANGER SIGNS

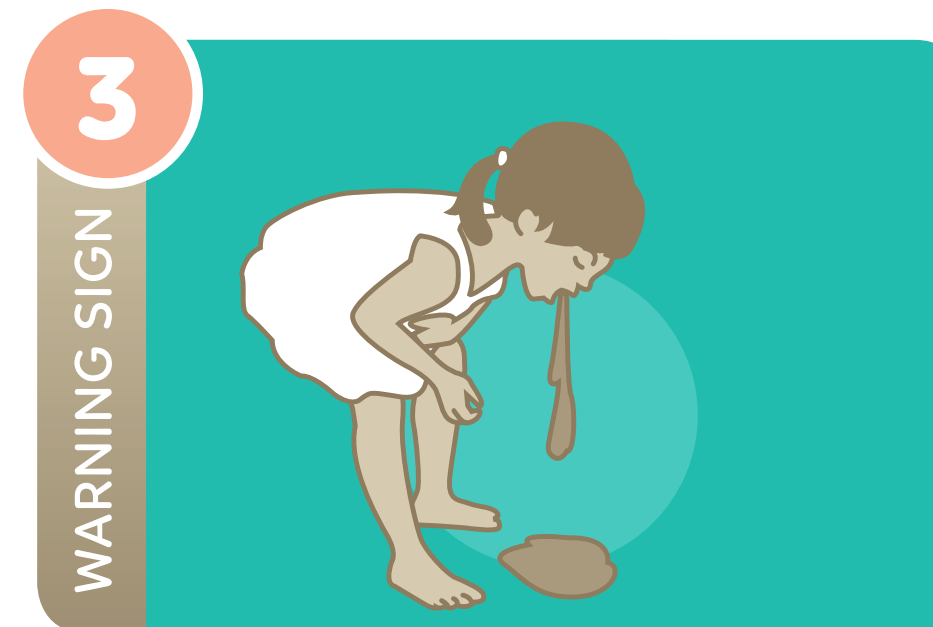

Take your child to the nearest clinic if you see any of the following signs:

The child is coughing and breathing fast (more than 50 breaths per minute)

The child under 2 months has a fever and is not feeding

The child is vomiting everything

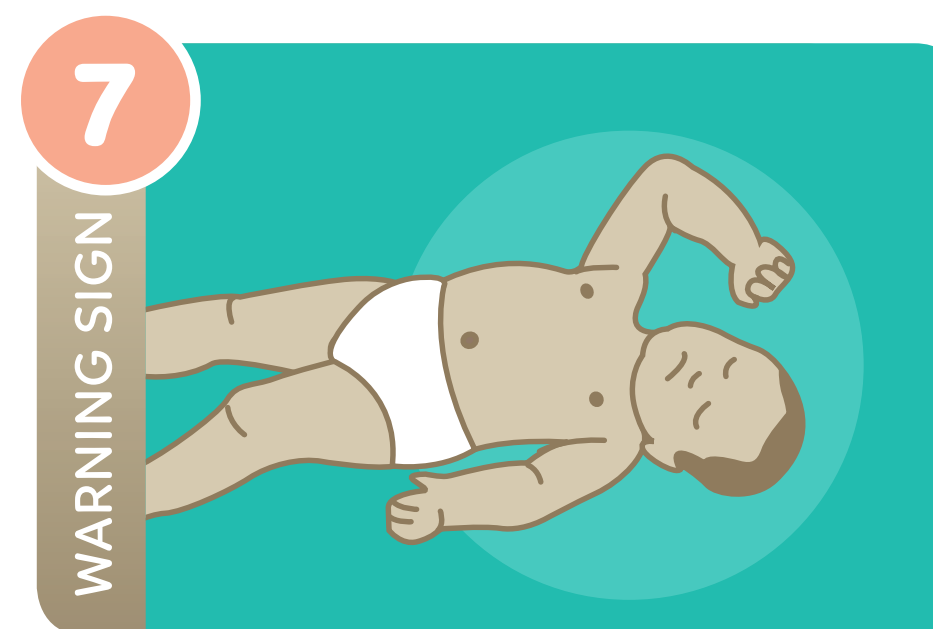

Child has diarrhoea, sunken eyes, sunken forehead

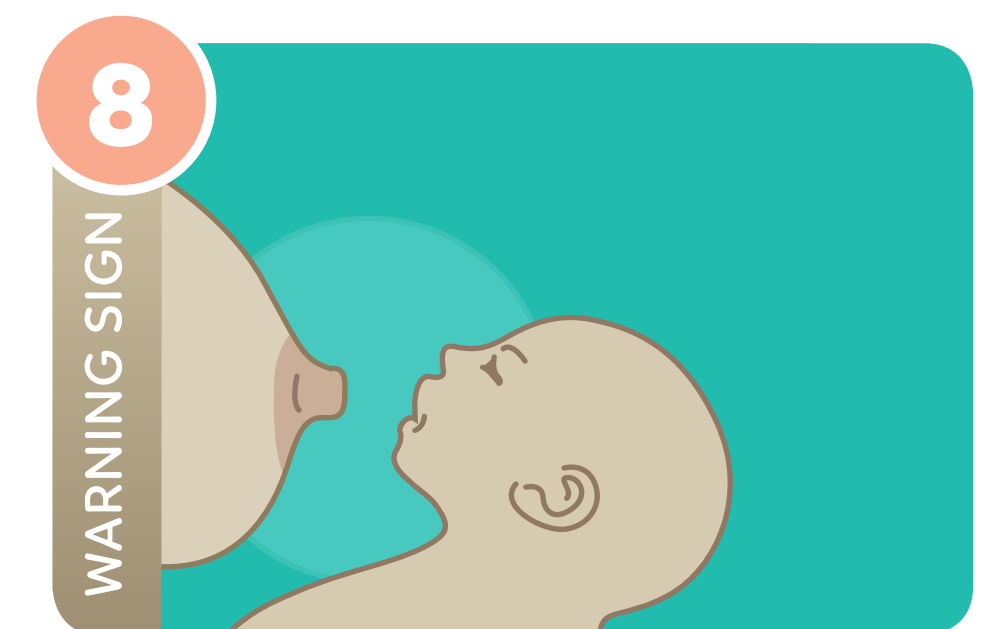

The child is shaking (convulsion)

The child has signs of malnutrition (swollen ankles and feet)

Child lethargic or unconscious

Child is unable to breastfeed

health

Department:
Health
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

A long and Healthy life for all South Africans

